Fund manager's commentary

The Federal Reserve and Bank of England held their policy interest rates at 4.25-4.5% and 4.25% respectively but the European Central Bank cut its main rate by a quarter percentage point to 2%. Oil rose 7.65% in sterling on Middle East conflict but markets proved resilient, with global equities and bonds rising 2.87% and 0.27% respectively in sterling. Within the EF Brompton Global Balanced Fund's bond allocation, TwentyFour Dynamic Bond and the sterling-hedged Pimco Global Low Duration Real Return holding returned 1.27% and 0.97% respectively but the iShares $ Treasury Bond 0-1 Year exchange-traded fund (ETF) fell 1.24%. US stocks outperformed as some tariff hikes were postponed pending talks, rising 3.41% in sterling, with technology particularly strong, up 7.69%, but the iShares S&P 500 Equal Weight ETF gained only 1.75% because of its relatively-low technology weighting. The dollar fell 1.59% against sterling in response to lack of trade policy clarity and economic slowdown fears. This fall benefitted equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets, which gained 4.51% and 4.45% respectively in sterling. The portfolio's holdings lagged, however, with Prusik Asian Equity Income and Redwheel Next Generation Emerging Markets Equity rising 1.49% and 2.12% respectively. Equities in the UK and Europe excluding the UK underperformed, rising only 0.28% and 0.64% in sterling respectively, but UK smaller companies did better, rising 3.05%. Within the portfolio, Aberforth UK Small Companies rose 3.31% but Lightman European fell 0.21%. The EF Brompton Global Balanced Fund gained 0.88% in June while the sector gained 1.50%.

ASSET MANAGEMENT

An EF Brompton Multi-Manager OEIC sub-fund

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds, unregulated collective investment schemes, and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that exposure to equity markets will typically range from a minimum of 20% to a maximum of 60% of the total Fund, with the aim of achieving the Fund's objective. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 20-60% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
