Fund manager's commentary

Global equities and bonds fell 0.82% and 0.61% in sterling respectively in November. UK stocks rose 0.48% as the chancellor, Rachel Reeves, announced £26 billion of budget tax increases but no significant economic stimulus measures. Amongst the EF Brompton Global Balanced Fund's UK equity investments, Man Income did best, up 1.77%. US stocks fell 0.60% in sterling but technology stocks did worse, falling 3.20%. The iShares S&P 500 Equal Weight exchange-traded fund (ETF), which has a lower technology weighting than market-value-weighted passive investments, outperformed, up 1.01%. Investment in the US technology sector, where shares appear priced for perfection, was cut through a reduction in the market value-weighted iShares Core S&P 500 ETF in favour of the iShares S&P 500 Equal Weight ETF. In Europe excluding the UK, where equities rose 0.67% in sterling, Lightman European, a value-oriented holding, rose 1.43% but the iShares MSCI EMU ETF gained only 0.01%. Equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets underperformed, falling 3.65% and 3.20% respectively in sterling. Within the portfolio, Man Asia (ex-Japan) Equity fell 4.23% but Prusik Asian Equity Income and Redwheel Next Generation Emerging Markets Equity rose 1.34% and 0.64% respectively. Within the bond holdings, Aegon Strategic Bond and the sterling-hedged Pimco Global Low Duration Real Return investment did best, rising 0.40% and 0.39% respectively. The iShares Physical Gold exchange-traded commodity rose 3.59% as some central banks diversified their reserves and investors bought safe-haven assets. The EF Brompton Global Balanced Fund rose 0.03% in November while the sector fell 0.16%.

ASSET MANAGEMENT

An EF Brompton Multi-Manager OEIC sub-fund

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds, unregulated collective investment schemes, and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that exposure to equity markets will typically range from a minimum of 20% to a maximum of 60% of the total Fund, with the aim of achieving the Fund's objective. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 20-60% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
