Fund manager's commentary

Global equities rose 0.41% in sterling but bonds fell 0.63%, dragged lower by the dollar's 2.05% fall against the pound as President Trump nominated a monetary dove, Stephen Miran, as Federal Reserve governor, increasing fears that monetary policy was becoming politicised. Dollar-weakness typically supports developing economies but equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets underperformed, falling 0.78% and 0.61% respectively in sterling. Within the EF Brompton Global Conservative Fund, Man Asia (ex Japan) Equity and Prusik Asian Equity Income outperformed, rising 1.38% and falling 0.09% respectively. US stocks fell 0.06% in sterling but the iShares S&P 500 Equal Weight exchange-traded fund, which has a lower technology weighting than conventional index investments, rose 0.57%. UK stocks outperformed, rising 1.08%, but Man Income gained only 0.15%. Equities in Europe excluding the UK also outperformed, rising 1.27% in sterling, and Lightman European did better, rising 2.77%. Within the bond portfolio, the sterling-hedged Pimco Global Low Duration Real Return and Legal & General Global Inflation Linked Bond holdings benefited from currency movements, rising 1.36% and 0.79% respectively. Among UK holdings, Schroder Strategic Credit and TwentyFour Dynamic Bond rose 0.68% and 0.56% respectively. Among the alternative holdings, CT Real Estate Equity Market Neutral rose 0.82% but Man UK Absolute Value fell 0.75% due to poor stock selection. Amid strong bullion markets, Trojan, a multi-asset investment with gold exposure, gained 1.28% while the iShares Physical Gold exchange-traded commodity rose 1.81%. The EF Brompton Global Conservative Fund rose 0.45% in August while the sector rose 0.24%.

BROMPTON
ASSET MANAGEMENT

An EF Brompton Multi-Manager OEIC sub-fund

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds, unregulated collective investment schemes, and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that no more than 35% of the total Fund will have exposure to equity markets, with the remainder of the portfolio providing exposure to assets such as alternatives, commodities, property, cash, cash equivalents and fixed income investments, in order to maintain its conservative risk profile. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 0-35% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
