Fund manager's commentary

The Federal Reserve held its policy interest rate at 4.25-4.5% because of sticky inflation and steady economic growth and the dollar rose 3.55% against sterling. US stocks outperformed, up 5.88% in sterling, led higher by technology stocks, up 9.12% as tariff negotiations assuaged investors' recession concerns. Jobs data for July, released in August, disappointed, however, with just 73,000 non-farm jobs created and figures for May and June were downgraded. Within the EF Brompton Global Conservative Fund, the iShares S&P 500 Equal Weight exchange-traded fund (ETF), up 4.52%, lagged because of its low weighting in technology stocks. Equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets outperformed, up 6.28% and 5.64% respectively in sterling. Within the portfolio, Prusik Asian Equity Income, which has a relatively-low Chinese and Indian allocation, rose 9.52% but Man Asia (ex-Japan) lagged, up 4.96%. UK equities lagged, up 3.83%, as did equities in Europe excluding the UK, up 0.96% in sterling. Global bonds fell 1.49% in dollars but rose 2.01% in sterling thanks to dollar strength. Within the portfolio, the iShares $ Treasury Bond 0-1 Year ETF and Schroder Strategic Credit returned 3.90% and 1.04% respectively but the sterling-hedged Vanguard Global Bond holding fell 0.11%. Among the portfolio's alternative holdings, Man Absolute Value, a UK daily-traded, long/short equity investment, fell 4.15% thanks to poor selection of long and short positions. With bullion markets strong, the iShares Physical Gold exchange-traded commodity gained 3.90%. The EF Brompton Global Conservative Fund rose 1.81% in July while the sector rose 1.33%.

ASSET MANAGEMENT

An EF Brompton Multi-Manager OEIC sub-fund

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds, unregulated collective investment schemes, and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that no more than 35% of the total Fund will have exposure to equity markets, with the remainder of the portfolio providing exposure to assets such as alternatives, commodities, property, cash, cash equivalents and fixed income investments, in order to maintain its conservative risk profile. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 0-35% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
