Fund manager's commentary

Global equities and bonds rose 4.78% and 2.21% respectively in sterling. US inflation increased modestly to 3%, leaving room for the Federal Reserve to cut its policy interest rate by a quarter percentage point to 3.75-4%. US stocks rose 4.87% in sterling, driven by technology stocks, up 8.66%. Within the EF Brompton Global Conservative Fund, the iShares S&P 500 Equal Weight exchange-traded fund (ETF) underperformed, however, returning only 1.48% because of its relatively-low weighting in the technology sector. The UK stockmarket rose 3.72%, with overseas earnings benefitting from the falling pound, but smaller companies returned only 1.15%. Man Income outperformed, rising 4.33%. Equities in Europe excluding the UK underperformed, up 2.97% in sterling, partly due to political instability in France, but Lightman European did better, rising 3.29%. Sino-US trade tensions eased and equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets outperformed, rising 7.08% and 6.76% respectively in sterling. Portfolio holdings underperformed, however, with Prusik Asian Equity Income weakest, up 2.59%. Among bond investments, the iShares $ Treasury Bond 0-1 Year ETF did best, rising 2.81% as it benefitted from the dollar's rise against sterling, but the sterling-hedged Pimco Global Low Duration Real Return holding rose only 0.32%. The portfolio's sole alternative holding, Trojan, a defensive multi-asset investment, rose 2.82% and the holding was increased, funded by a reduction in US equities. The iShares Physical Gold exchange-traded commodity rose 7.44% as investors sought out safe-haven investments. The EF Brompton Global Conservative Fund rose 1.69% in October while the sector rose 1.95%.

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds, unregulated collective investment schemes, and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that no more than 35% of the total Fund will have exposure to equity markets, with the remainder of the portfolio providing exposure to assets such as alternatives, commodities, property, cash, cash equivalents and fixed income investments, in order to maintain its conservative risk profile. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 0-35% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
