Fund manager's commentary

Global equities rose 0.25% in sterling, recovering from falls in early August in some markets. Jerome Powell, the Federal Reserve chairman, paved the way for interest-rate cuts in September following weak US employment data, with only 142,000 new jobs created in August and 4.2% unemployment. Global bonds rose 0.05% in sterling. Within the EF Brompton Global Income Fund, the sterling-hedged holdings in Vanguard Global Bond and Pimco Global Low Duration Real Return rose 1.06% and 0.32% respectively, with hedging protecting them from the dollar's 2.27% fall against the pound. In the UK, the strongest bond holdings were Henderson Fixed Interest Monthly Income and Jupiter Dynamic Bond, up 2.14% and 1.93% respectively. In late July, the Bank of Japan raised rates, disrupting 'carry trade', in which investors borrow in the low-yielding yen to invest in higher-yielding overseas assets. JPMorgan Japan Small Cap Growth & Income, up 0.30%, outperformed the 1.93% fall by Japanese stocks in sterling. US stocks underperformed, up 0.10% in sterling, as US technology shares fell 1.19%. Within the global equity allocation, Guinness Global Equity Income and ClearBridge Global Infrastructure Income outperformed, up 2.28% and 0.83% respectively. Clearbridge Global Infrastructure Income may benefit from falling interest rates because of the "bond-like" visibility of cash flows from some infrastructure companies. Within the global allocation, Polar Capital Global Insurance was added and Dimensional Global Targeted Value was sold. The EF Brompton Global Income Fund rose 0.74% in August while the sector rose 0.66%. At 31 August the historic yield was 3.44%.

ASSET MANAGEMENT

An EF Brompton Multi-Manager OEIC sub-fund

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds and unregulated collective investment schemes.

The Fund may also invest in investment trusts (and similar instruments), other transferable securities, money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that exposure to equity markets will typically range from a minimum of 20% to a maximum of 60% of the total Fund, with the aim of achieving the Fund's objective. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 20-60% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
