Fund manager's commentary

The Federal Reserve and Bank of England raised their official interest rates by a quarter percentage point and half a point respectively. Global equities and bonds returned 4.74% and 0.92% respectively in sterling on hopes that peak interest rates might be close. Among the EF Brompton Global Balanced Fund's global equity holdings, Polar Capital Global Technology gained 10.20% respectively but Guinness Global Equity Income and Polar Capital Global Insurance Growth, both more defensive holdings, fell 0.81% and gained 2.28% respectively. The dollar fell 2.29% and 1.44% respectively against sterling and the yen. This proved a tailwind for equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets, up 5.74% and 5.43% respectively in sterling. The portfolio's holdings outperformed, with Redwheel Global Emerging Markets and Matthews Asia ex Japan Dividend doing best, up 7.19% and 6.50% respectively. Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds, unregulated collective investment schemes, and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that exposure to equity markets will typically range from a minimum of 20% to a maximum of 60% of the total Fund, with the aim of achieving the Fund's objective. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 20-60% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
