Fund manager's commentary

US inflation rose to 3.5% in March, marginally above December's 3.4%, prompting the Federal Reserve to comment on the recent lack of progress towards its 2% target. Sticky inflation and unemployment close to historic lows reduced investors' expectations of early Fed interest rate cuts. Global bonds fell 1.66% in sterling while UK government bonds and sterling investment-grade corporate bonds fell 3.20% and 1.84% respectively. Within the EF Brompton Global Balanced Fund, the weakest bond investments were the sterling-hedged iShares $ Treasury Bond 7-10 Years exchange-traded fund holding and Jupiter Dynamic Bond, down 3.10% and 2.37% respectively. The US technology sector fell 3.63% in sterling as growth stocks were hurt by dwindling hopes of early rate cuts. Chinese stocks rose 7.55% in sterling, however, as first-quarter economic growth topped expectations, fuelling gains by equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets, up 2.15% and 1.36% respectively. The portfolio benefitted from its relatively-high holdings in Asian emerging markets, with Baillie Gifford Pacific and Man GLG Asia (ex-Japan) Equity up 4.23% and 2.86% respectively. The UK stockmarket, which has a heavy resources weighting, gained 2.38% as it benefitted from BHP's bid approach to Anglo American and the 13.66% copper price rise in sterling. Within the portfolio, Aberforth UK Small Companies and Man GLG Income rose 4.81% and 4.62% respectively but Liontrust Special Situations gained only 0.62%. Gold rose 4.30% in sterling on inflation fears and central bank buying. The EF Brompton Global Balanced Fund fell 0.59%† in April while the sector fell 0.68%.

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds, unregulated collective investment schemes, and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that exposure to equity markets will typically range from a minimum of 20% to a maximum of 60% of the total Fund, with the aim of achieving the Fund's objective. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 20-60% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
