Fund manager's commentary

Global equities and bonds fell 4.09% and 1.78% respectively in local currencies but fell 2.10% and gained 0.25% respectively in sterling as the pound fell 2.03% against the dollar. The prospect of higher, more persistent US and UK inflation prompted more hawkish guidance from the Federal Reserve and Bank of England. UK government bonds and sterling investment-grade corporate bonds fell 3.86% and 2.30% respectively although sterling high-yield bonds rose 0.05%. The EF Brompton Global Growth Fund's bond holdings benefited from a bias towards shorter-duration and inflation-linked bonds. The sterling-hedged PIMCO Global Low Duration Real Return holding gained 0.09% while Henderson Fixed Interest Monthly Income fell 0.15%. Sterling-weakness contributed to outperformance by UK stocks, which were unchanged. Of the six UK equity investments, Aberforth UK Smaller Companies was weakest, down 4.33%, while Chelverton UK Equity Growth outperformed, rising 0.16%. Equities in Europe excluding the UK fell 3.51% in sterling and BlackRock European Dynamic and the WisdomTree Europe SmallCap Dividend exchange-traded fund (ETF) lagged, down 5.40% and 4.85% respectively. In the US, where equities fell 2.68% in sterling, Vulcan Value Equity outperformed, falling 0.54%. Japanese equities outperformed, up 4.88% in sterling following Yoshihide Suga's resignation as premier. Nippon Active Value and T Rowe Price Japanese Equity lagged, rising 4.62% and 2.96% respectively. Lindsell Train Japanese Equity was added to the portfolio. The iShares Gold Producers ETF was the worst performer, down 7.95%. The EF Brompton Global Growth Fund fell 1.12%† in September while the sector fell 1.36%.

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds, unregulated collective investment schemes, and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that exposure to equity markets will typically range from a minimum of 40% to a maximum of 85% of the total Fund, with the aim of achieving the Fund's objective. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 40-85% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
