Fund manager's commentary

The Federal Reserve and Bank of England kept their official interest rates on hold but the European Central Bank raised its by a quarter percentage point. Oil rose 14.02% in sterling as some Opec members cut production despite robust demand. Above-target inflation and resilient economic growth raised fears that rates might stay higher for longer. Sterling fell 3.68% against the dollar, translating a local-currency fall for global bonds into a 0.79% rise in sterling. UK government bonds fell 0.98% but sterling corporate bonds rose 0.16%. Within the EF Brompton Global Growth Fund, sterling hedging left the iShares $ Treasury Bond 7-10 Years exchange-traded fund (ETF) and Vanguard Global Bond down 3.19% and 2.07% respectively but Schroder Strategic Credit outperformed, rising 0.60%. Global equities fell 0.44% in sterling. The UK stockmarket outperformed, up 2.33%, but smaller stocks lagged, down 1.26%. Within the portfolio, Man GLG Income did best, up 2.91%, but Chelverton UK Equity Growth, a small-cap specialist, fell 2.42%. Equities in emerging markets and Asia excluding Japan also outperformed, up 1.14% and 1.07% respectively in sterling. Within the portfolio, Stewart Investors Indian Subcontinent gained 5.56% but Mobius Investment Trust fell 1.48%. In a weak bullion market, the iShares Gold Producers ETF fell 4.32%. This holding and the iShares Physical Gold exchange-traded commodity were reduced but Polar Capital Global Insurance was added because higher insurance premiums and returns on cash may boost profits for some insurers. The EF Brompton Global Growth Fund fell 0.41%† in September while the sector fell 0.69%.

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds, unregulated collective investment schemes, and may also include transferable securities (including investment trusts and similar instruments), money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that exposure to equity markets will typically range from a minimum of 40% to a maximum of 85% of the total Fund, with the aim of achieving the Fund's objective. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 40-85% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
