EF Brompton Global Income Fund

An EF Brompton Multi-Manager OEIC sub-fund

Fund manager's commentary

Monetary policy tightened to combat inflation, with the Federal Reserve and the Bank of England raising their official interest rates by three-quarters of a percentage point and a quarter point respectively. Global equity markets fell 8.39% in dollar terms but the pound's 4.93% fall against the dollar limited the decline to 4.93% in sterling. Among the EF Brompton Global Income Fund's global equity holdings, the Xtrackers MSCI World Healthcare exchange-traded fund (ETF) and Polar Capital Global Insurance did best, rising 0.48% and falling 0.70% respectively. BlackRock Natural Resources Growth & Income and the iShares Gold Producers ETF, however, fell 13.75% and 11.10% respectively. The oil price fell 2.18% in sterling because higher interest rates may hurt demand. UK equities fell 5.83% because of the UK market's bias towards energy and basic materials. Smaller companies did worse, falling 10.04% because of their sensitivity to domestic trends. Some of the portfolio's actively-managed holdings suffered from their small company bias, with Aberforth Split Level Income doing worst, falling 9.58%. Equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets outperformed, falling 0.79% and 3.04% in sterling respectively, with Chinese stocks rising against the trend, up 10.66% in sterling as a leading indicator for Chinese manufacturing rose. Japanese stocks also proved relatively resilient, falling 3.75% in sterling as yen-weakness improved exporters' prospects. The portfolio's sole Japanese equity holding, Lindsell Train Japanese Equity, outperformed, rising 0.60%. The EF Brompton Global Income Fund fell 4.16%† in June while the sector fell 4.17%. At 30 June, the historic yield was 2.93%††.

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds and unregulated collective investment schemes.

The Fund may also invest in investment trusts (and similar instruments), other transferable securities, money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts.

It is expected that exposure to equity markets will typically range from a minimum of 20% to a maximum of 60% of the total Fund, with the aim of achieving the Fund's objective. However, investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Mixed Investment 20-60% Shares. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
