Fund manager's commentary

Global equities and bonds rose 3.00% and 0.86% respectively in sterling. Global growth stocks rose 5.56% in sterling, outperforming value stocks, up 0.32%, as signs that inflation was falling towards central bank targets led investors to anticipate interest rate cuts. Shortly after the month end, Labour won a landslide UK general election victory. High levels of government debt may limit the potential for unfunded spending but clarity on the domestic political situation may raise consumer spending and corporate investment. UK stocks fell 1.35% but US technology stocks rose 9.58% in sterling. Within the EF Brompton Global Opportunities Fund, Polar Capital Global Technology outperformed, up 9.65%. The portfolio also benefited from its high allocation to equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets, up 5.07% and 4.76% respectively in sterling, with Indian stocks leading the way, up 7.81% as Narendra Modi, the prime minister, won a third term albeit now dependent on coalition partners. The continuation of Modi's pro-business policies is supportive for Indian equities and Stewart Investors Indian Subcontinent, which aims to hold quality growth stocks, rose 11.06%. Amongst other holdings, Baillie Gifford Pacific benefited from Indian stockmarket strength, rising 5.05%, but Redwheel Next Generation Emerging Markets Equity, which invests outside the major emerging markets, fell 2.30%. Japanese stocks fell 0.18% in sterling but Nippon Active Value and Comgest Growth Japan outperformed, up 2.70% and 2.33% respectively. The Man GLG Japan CoreAlpha holding was sold. The EF Brompton Global Opportunities Fund rose 1.97%† in June while the sector rose 1.36%.

Investment policy

The Fund will typically invest a minimum of 80% of its net asset value in collective investment schemes, exchange traded funds and unregulated collective investment schemes.

The Fund may also invest in investment trusts (and similar instruments), other transferable securities, money-market instruments, fixed income instruments, deposits and foreign exchange contracts. Investments will not be confined by industrial, economic or geographical sector.

Although the Fund will usually be invested across a range of asset classes, in certain market conditions, the Investment Manager may decide to hold up to 100% in equity markets. This would be for a limited period and only in exceptional circumstances.

The Fund may also hold, on a temporary basis, all or part of its assets in cash or other ancillary liquid assets.

The Fund may utilise derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (typically hedging, including investing in hedged share classes, which attempts to mitigate against falls in the value of the Fund's assets and the effects of changes in currency exchange rates against the Fund's base currency, which is pounds sterling).

The Fund's benchmark is IA Flexible Investment. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
