Fund manager's commentary

Global equities rose 3.15% in sterling as economic data improved. The 3% annualised gain in third-quarter US gross domestic product topped forecasts. US equities outperformed, returning 3.39% in sterling. US financial stocks did even better. Within the EF Brompton Global Balanced Fund, the iShares S&P 500 Financials exchange-traded fund gained 3.96%. Shinzo Abe won October's snap election in Japan and may become the country's longest-serving post-war prime minister. Japanese equities outperformed, rising 5.54%. Lindsell Train Japanese Equity and the sterling-hedged GLG Japan Core Alpha holding lagged, however, gaining 2.28% and 4.28% respectively. Equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets also outperformed, returning 5.80% and 4.58% respectively in sterling, helped by stronger commodity prices. Copper gained 6.61% while oil rose 5.74% in sterling as a supply-cutting deal between Russia and Saudi Arabia and an Opec output accord held back production. Hermes Asia ex Japan outperformed, gaining 6.48%, while Goldman Sachs India was the portfolio's best performer, returning 7.04%. RobecoSAM Smart Materials rose 6.82% as its holdings benefited from technological change, notably the substitution of lighter materials such as carbon fibre and plastics for heavier ones such as steel. UK government bonds and sterling corporate bonds returned 0.33% and 0.58% respectively but sterling fell 1.02% against the dollar as Brexit talks stalled, contributing to falls of 0.64% and 1.33% respectively for the sterling-hedged holdings in Templeton Global Bond and Templeton Emerging Markets Bond. The EF Brompton Global Balanced Fund gained 2.42%† in October while the sector gained 1.45%. Financial data source: Thomson Reuters 31 October 2017 † B Acc shares
