† The historic yield reflects distributions paid or declared over the past 12 months as a percentage of the share price at the date of this document. It does not include any initial charge and investors may be subject to tax on distributions.

All of the fund's expenses are charged to capital. This has had the effect of increasing the distributions paid on an annualised basis by approximately 0.90 percentage points on the B share class and reducing the capital performance by an equivalent amount.

Fund manager's commentary

Oil fell further in December, dropping 19.35% in sterling. Excessive supply appears the primary cause as Opec producers maintain output despite US shale oil production growth. Lower energy costs will stimulate economic growth but investors fear potential disinflationary consequences. UK inflation fell to 0.5% in December. Global equities fell 1.46% and UK equities underperformed, falling 2.27% as a result of the UK stockmarket's high proportion of natural resources companies although the FP Brompton Global Income Fund's holding in PFS Chelverton UK Equity Income outperformed, rising 1.30%. In the eurozone, consumer prices turned negative, dropping 0.2% on a year ago. Eurozone equities fell 4.59% in sterling, thanks partly to the euro's 2.51% decline against the pound. The portfolio's eurozone investments were increased on weakness by adding Standard Life European Equity Income. Strong employment and consumer confidence data left the Federal Reserve on track to raise interest rates in mid-2015. US equities rose 0.18% as the dollar gained 0.44% against sterling. Japanese equities were relatively resilient, falling 0.65%, and the dollar-hedged Coupland Cardiff Japan Income & Growth fund outperformed, rising 1.81%. Gilts and corporate bonds rose 1.78% and 1.32% respectively because weak inflation reduced the likelihood of a UK interest rate rise. UK commercial property also benefited. F&C Property Growth & Income did best, gaining 2.61%. The Blackrock World Mining investment trust was the worst performer, falling by 10.82%. The FP Brompton Global Income Fund fell 0.41% in December against 0.36% for the sector. At 31 December, the projected yield was 3.09%.†
