† The historic yield reflects distributions paid or declared over the past 12 months as a percentage of the share price at the date of this document. It does not include any initial charge and investors may be subject to tax on distributions.

All of the fund's expenses are charged to capital. This has had the effect of increasing the distributions paid on an annualised basis by approximately 0.90 percentage points on the B share class and reducing the capital performance by an equivalent amount.

Fund manager's commentary

Sterling weakened ahead of the Scottish referendum but failed to rally after the "no" vote, leaving it 2.44% down against the dollar in September. UK inflation data remained weak and expectations of an earlier rise in UK interest rates relative to US rates receded. US unemployment fell to 5.9% and leading indicators remained strong. US equities gained 1.01% in sterling while global equities fell 0.84% in sterling. The stronger dollar proved a headwind for Asia Pacific ex-Japan and emerging market equities, which fell 4.98% and 5.13% respectively in sterling. Europe ex-UK equities fell 0.66% in sterling as economic data weakened. German industrial production, still affected by the Ukrainian conflict, fell 4.0% in August. Further substantive European Central Bank policy action is anticipated but an announcement seemed unlikely ahead of October's financial health-check of eurozone banks. UK equities declined 2.89%, with industrial commodity shares falling furthest. The FP Global Income Fund benefited from its relatively-low UK holdings but suffered from the 9.11% fall in the Blackrock World Mining investment trust. UK gilts and sterling corporate bonds fell 0.61% and 0.56% respectively but Templeton Global Bond did better, gaining 1.69%, buoyed by the strong dollar. Japanese equities gained 1.39% in sterling on yen weakness. The holding in the Lindsell Train Japanese Equity sterling-hedged share class gained 1.88% and was replaced at the month end by the dollar-hedged share class of the iShares MSCI exchange-traded fund. The FP Brompton Global Income Fund fell 1.53% in September while the sector fell 0.96%. At 30 September, the projected yield† was 3.12%.
