†† The historic yield on the B share class reflects distributions paid or declared over the past 12 months as a percentage of the share price at the date of this document. It does not include any initial charge and investors may be subject to tax on distributions.

All of the fund's expenses are charged to capital. This has had the effect of increasing the distributions paid on an annualised basis by approximately 0.90 percentage points on the B share class and reducing the capital performance by an equivalent amount.

Fund manager's commentary

Global equities rose 3.15% in sterling as economic data improved. The 3% annualised gain in third-quarter US gross domestic product topped forecasts. US equities outperformed, up 3.39% in sterling. US financial stocks did even better although the EF Brompton Global Income Fund's holding in Polar Capital Global Financials, which has a heavy US weighting, lagged, returning 2.38%. In Japan, Shinzo Abe won October's snap election and may become the country's longest-serving post-war leader. Japanese equities outperformed, rising 5.54%. Lindsell Train Japanese Equity and the sterling-hedged GLG Japan Core Alpha holding lagged, however, gaining 2.66% and 4.28% respectively. Equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets also outperformed, returning 5.80% and 4.58% respectively in sterling, helped by stronger commodity prices. Copper gained 6.61% while oil rose 5.74% in sterling as a supply-cutting deal between Russia and Saudi Arabia held back production. Schroder Oriental Income rose 4.69% while the WisdomTree Emerging Markets SmallCap Dividend exchange-traded fund gained 2.08%. RobecoSAM Smart Materials rose 6.82% as its holdings benefited from technological change, notably the use of lighter materials such as carbon fibre. UK government bonds and sterling corporate bonds returned 0.33% and 0.58% respectively but sterling fell 1.02% against the dollar as Brexit talks stalled, contributing to falls of 0.64% and 1.33% respectively for the sterling-hedged holdings in Templeton Global Bond and Templeton Emerging Markets Bond. The EF Brompton Global Income Fund gained 1.94%† in October while the sector gained 1.45%. At 31 October, the historic yield was 3.58%††.
