WAY Global Balanced Portfolio

A unit trust managed by Brompton Asset Management

Fund manager's commentary

Global equities and bonds rose 4.97% and 1.49% in sterling respectively as investors celebrated the Republicans' clean sweep in the presidential and congressional elections. Donald Trump promised 25% tariffs on goods from Mexico and Canada and 35% from China. Trump's policies may prove inflationary, leading to a stronger dollar and interest rates remaining higher for longer, but US stocks outperformed, rising 7.09% in sterling on hopes of tax cuts and deregulation. The WAY Global Balanced Portfolio's US equity allocation increased through the purchase of the iShares S&P 500 Equal Weight exchange-traded fund (ETF). This holds equal amounts of America's biggest stocks unlike conventional market value-weighted passive investments, which are currently dominated by large technology companies. Equities in emerging markets and Asia excluding Japan lagged, down 2.48% and 2.17% respectively in sterling. Within the portfolio, Stewart Investors Indian Subcontinent and Redwheel Next Generation Emerging Markets Equity outperformed, rising 1.32% and 0.43% respectively. Within the global equity allocation, Polar Capital Global Insurance did best, rising 8.79%. Commercial insurers are benefitting from attractive returns on cash and higher premia because underwriting capital is scarce and natural disasters are increasing. First Sentier Global Listed Infrastructure also outperformed, up 6.14%. The iShares Gold Producers ETF, however, fell 5.48% as gold weakened. Within the bond allocation, inflation protection was increased through an addition to the sterling-hedged Fidelity Global Inflation-linked Bond holding and the iShares $ Treasury Bond 1-3 Years ETF was added. The WAY Global Balanced Portfolio rose 1.40% in November while the sector rose 1.63%.
