WAY Flexible Global Growth Portfolio

A unit trust managed by Brompton Asset Management

Fund manager's commentary

Global equities and bonds rose 2.02% and 0.84% in sterling respectively as investors awaited the US election. In the event, Donald Trump won the presidency and the Republicans secured majorities in both houses of Congress, enhancing Trump's chances of implementing his plans. US stocks fell 0.91% in dollar terms but rose 3.39% in sterling, the result of the dollar's 4.33% rise against the pound. Currency hedging hurt the WAY Flexible Global Growth Portfolio's global bond holdings, with the sterling-hedged Vanguard Global Aggregate Bond investment weakest, down 1.64%. Dollar-strength hurt equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets, down 0.32% and 0.18% respectively in sterling. Within the portfolio, Mobius Investment Trust and Redwheel Next Generation Emerging Markets Equity rose 0.72% and 0.54% respectively but Schroder Asian Total Return fell 1.52%. Indian equities fell 3.65% in sterling because a rising oil price, up 7.38% in sterling in October, may prove a headwind for the oil-importing Indian economy. UK stocks fell 1.67%, led lower by small companies, down 2.75% in the run-up to Labour's inaugural budget, which included tax and spending increases. Consumers and businesses may, however, gain in confidence, committing to longer-term spending as a result of greater clarity after the budget, leading to stronger economic activity. Within the portfolio, Fidelity Special Situations fell only 0.50% but Artemis UK Special Situations fell 1.49%. Amid heightened political uncertainty, gold rose 8.28% in sterling as investors sought safe-haven investments. The WAY Flexible Global Growth Portfolio rose 0.23% in October while the sector rose 0.13%.

Although the Fund will normally remain fully invested, the property of the Fund may consist of up to 10% cash or near cash where this may be reasonably regarded as necessary in order to enable the pursuit of the Fund's objective, settlement of redemptions of units and the efficient management of the Fund in accordance with its objectives or other purposes which may be reasonably regarded as ancillary to the objectives of the Fund.

The Fund's benchmark is IA Flexible Investment. This represents a comparator benchmark because the Fund's performance can be compared to funds which also sit within this industry sector.
