Fund manager's commentary

Geopolitical events drove markets in March as the Ukraine crisis escalated and investors pondered the potential impact of retaliatory trade sanctions. Russian equities fell 11.79% in one day before recovering almost all this ground to end the month down 1.51% in sterling as fears subsided. Emerging markets and Asia-Pacific ex-Japan equities posted gains of 3.63% and 2.32% respectively, outperforming the 0.73% gain in sterling from global equities. The recovery in these markets may, however, prove short-lived as US economic data strengthens and Chinese monetary policy remains tight. The WAY Global Blue Managed Portfolio had no direct holdings in these markets in March. US equities gained 1.37% as solid US non-farm payroll numbers allowed the Federal Reserve to continue tapering. Europe ex-UK equities rose 0.61% in sterling as survey data confirmed a gradual improvement in activity and sentiment during the first quarter, particularly in the periphery. Eurozone unemployment has stabilised while exports and consumer spending data were encouraging. Inflation fell to 0.5% prompting the European Central Bank president, Mario Draghi, to contemplate radical policy measures including quantitative easing. Fidelity Germany fell 1.78%, reflecting the German economy's heavy dependence on Russian energy imports. CF Miton UK Smaller Companies was the best performer, rising 4.94% despite the 2.60% fall in the UK stockmarket overall. Gilts returned 0.03% while sterling corporate bonds fell 0.15% as falling UK inflation reduced pressure on the Bank of England to raise interest rates. The Blue Managed Portfolio income shares fell 0.48% in March against a 0.32% fall for the sector.
