Fund manager's commentary

Japanese equities gained 4.46% in May, outperforming global equities, which rose 2.90% in sterling. Japan's economy expanded by an annualised 6.70% in the first quarter, driven by rising exports and consumer spending ahead of the recent consumption tax rise. The second quarter may be weaker in consequence but a mooted corporate tax cut could smooth the impact by stimulating further growth in corporate capital spending. Within the WAY Global Blue Managed Portfolio, the iShares MSCI Japan exchange-traded fund (ETF) and the sterling-hedged GLG Japan CoreAlpha fund gained 4.63% and 3.37% respectively in sterling. Emerging market and Asia Pacific ex-UK equities gained 4.20% and 3.93% respectively in sterling as US treasury yields fell and strong US macro-economic data fostered risk-taking. Indian equities rose 10.31% in sterling as Narendra Modi was elected prime minister with a convincing majority and a mandate for reform. Moscow equities did even better, returning 13.44% in sterling as fears of an escalation in the Ukraine crisis subsided. Schroder Small Cap Discovery was the portfolio's best performer, rising 5.21% in sterling. This fund has a broad geographic exposure across developing economy stockmarkets, including significant holdings in Indian equities. Exposure to the UK small and midcap equity sectors was reduced through the sale of the iShares FTSE 250 ETF whilst the SPDR FTSE UK All Share ETF was added to the portfolio to increase exposure to UK large-cap companies and associated valuation opportunities. The WAY Global Blue Managed Portfolio gained 0.69%† in May compared to 1.39% for the sector.
