Fund manager's commentary

The Federal Reserve raised interest rates for the third time since December 2015 in response to positive jobs and inflation data. Policymakers view monetary policy as accommodative and further gradual increases are considered consistent with moderate economic growth and rising employment. President Trump failed to repeal Obamacare, casting doubt on his ability to deliver his promised fiscal stimulus. US equities fell 0.37% in sterling, underperforming the 0.80% sterling gain for global equities. The WAY Global Blue fund's two US equity holdings fell, with the iShares S&P 500 Financials Sector exchange-traded fund (ETF) doing worse, down 3.27%. Equities in Europe excluding the UK rose 4.64% in sterling as economic data strengthened and pro-European Union candidates polled strongly in the Dutch election. The portfolio's Europe ex-UK funds gained, with Schroder European doing best, up 4.86%. Equities in Asia excluding Japan and emerging markets rose 2.78% and 2.05% respectively in sterling and Goldman Sachs Emerging Markets Equity outperformed, rising 4.42%. Increased US oil production sent oil prices down 7.70%. Following commodity price weakness, RobecoSAM Smart Materials, which focusses on alternative and renewable energy, was added to the portfolio. UK equities were relatively strong, returning 1.18%, but Liontrust Special Situations and Schroder Recovery, lagged, rising 0.18% and 0.47% respectively. Aberforth UK Smaller Companies, however, rose 3.03%. Global bonds fell but Man GLG Global Emerging Markets Debt and Templeton Global Bond generated positive returns, rising 0.17% and 1.67% respectively. The WAY Global Blue Portfolio gained 0.61%† in March while the sector gained 0.78%.
