Fund manager's commentary

Global equities rebounded 5.80% in October as the prospect of an imminent US interest rate rise receded following weaker-than-anticipated jobs data. The WAY Global Red Active Portfolio's cash allocation was reduced from 8.74% to 1.53% during October as a result of purchases of Asia Pacific and European equity funds. Chinese equities recovered 6.99% in sterling as China's central bank cut interest rates and intervened in the currency markets to stabilise the renminbi. Investment in undervalued Asian equity markets increased through the purchase of Blackrock Asian Growth Leaders. Japanese equities recovered 6.83% in sterling as Chinese policy support stemmed capital flight from the region. Japanese equity exposure increased through further investment in GLG Japan CoreAlpha, which rose 9.42% and was the fund's top performing holding in October. Europe excluding UK equities gained 5.06% in October and Schroder European Alpha Plus outperformed, rising 5.58%. US equities outperformed, rising 6.35% in sterling despite the dollar's 1.92% fall against the pound. The portfolio has significant investments in US equities through the iShares Core S&P 500 exchange-traded fund (ETF) and holdings in Fundsmith Equity. Fundsmith, which gained 7.87% over the month, has a focus on companies with strong consumer franchises that should benefit from increased discretionary spending as a result of the weak oil price. In the UK, Lindsell Train UK Equity outperformed, rising 5.98%. Gilts fell 1.10% as risk aversion dissipated. The portfolio sold Standard Life Global Absolute Return. The WAY Global Red Active Portfolio gained 5.32%† in October against 4.88% for the sector.
