Fund manager's commentary

Global equities fell 5.19% as Greece failed to renegotiate bailout terms in time to prevent a default on a payment due to the International Monetary Fund. Greek government bonds fell sharply and the Athens stockmarket closed. The Bank of Greece imposed capital controls to protect the country's banking system. Europe ex-UK equities underperformed modestly, falling 5.69% in sterling, pushed lower by the euro's 1.39% fall against sterling. The WAY Global Red Active Portfolio's significant equity investments in Europe excluding the UK were maintained because eurozone equity markets are supported by quantitative easing, lower oil prices and a weaker euro despite the risks of Grexit. Emerging markets were hit hard by rising risk aversion. Asia ex-Japan and emerging market equities fell 6.71% and 5.42% respectively in sterling. Investment in these equity markets has been reduced through profit-taking but the residual holdings in Hermes Asia ex-Japan and Schroder SmallCap Discovery fell 7.01% and 4.97% respectively. A high commodity exposure weighed on UK equities, which fell 6.43%. Security selection within the UK equity market benefitted relative performance, however, because of the portfolio's bias towards funds with high UK small and midcap allocations. During June, the holding in GLG UK Undervalued Assets was increased. Bonds fell as US inflation and employment data strengthened. UK gilts and sterling corporate bonds declined 1.73% and 2.78% respectively. Templeton Global Bond fell 4.37%, driven lower by the dollar's 2.97% fall against sterling. The WAY Global Red Active Portfolio fell 4.63%† in June against a fall of 4.02% for the sector.
